Although now requiring modernisation, the property presents an excellent opportunity to create a comfortable family home tailored to individual tastes. The accommodation begins with an entrance porch opening into a central hallway. From here, the principal reception room provides an impressive amount of living space, with a broad bay window drawing in plenty of natural light and a stone fireplace forming a traditional focal point. The room flows naturally into a separate dining area, where glazed doors open directly onto the rear patio and garden. Positioned beyond the hallway, the kitchen is fitted with a range of timber-fronted units, work surfaces and integrated appliances, with a window overlooking the garden. A separate utility room provides valuable additional workspace and storage, together with direct access outside. The ground floor is completed by a useful cloakroom, while the double height integral garage offers secure parking, storage or workshop space.

On the first floor, the landing serves three well-proportioned bedrooms, each capable of accommodating a double bed or providing flexible space for guests, children or home working. The bedrooms are complemented by a family bathroom fitted with a three-piece suite comprising a bath with shower screen, pedestal wash basin and WC.
