An individually designed detached house extending to approximately 2,274 sqft, built in 1982 and occupying a mature plot of approximately 0.52 of an acre.

The property enjoys a delightful semi-rural setting, approximately five miles south of Chichester and a similar distance from the beach at Church Norton and the RSPB Nature Reserves at Pagham Harbour and Medmerry.

The house is presented in excellent decorative order and offers bright, spacious and versatile accommodation arranged over two floors.

A spacious entrance porch leads into a welcoming entrance hall with cloakroom. The fabulous open-plan triple-aspect sitting room and family room forms a particularly impressive living space. The sitting room features an attractive open fireplace with feature surround, whilst the family room benefits from a part-vaulted ceiling with Velux windows and bi-folding doors opening directly onto the rear garden.

A square archway leads through to the dining room, which has a door providing access to the study, together with a rear hall and door to outside. Off the rear hall there is a door to leading to the utility room which is fitted with a range of floor and wall mounted cupboards and space for washing machine.

The kitchen/breakfast room is a particular feature of the property, fitted with an extensive range of floor and wall-mounted cupboards, quartz work surfaces and a matching central island incorporating an induction hob with ceiling-mounted extractor. Integrated appliances include an AEG double oven, with the upper oven incorporating combination convection and microwave functions, together with an integrated fridge, freezer and wine cooler.

On the first floor there are four well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom fitted with a shower over the bath. The principal bedroom enjoys an en-suite shower room.

Outside, a private driveway leads to a detached double garage with twin electrically operated doors and a useful, boarded loft space above. The gardens wrap around the property and extend to approximately 0.52 of an acre. There are extensive areas of lawn, together with a number of patio areas providing opportunities to enjoy both sunshine and shade at different times of the day. A feature arbour provides an attractive focal point, while mature trees, shrubs and planting create a wonderful sense of privacy and seclusion.

The property combines generous and versatile accommodation with a superb, mature garden and an attractive semi-rural setting, whilst remaining within convenient reach of Chichester and the beautiful south coast.
