Local Area

Brixworth is a highly sought after village located just 5.5 miles north of Northampton, offering excellent road and rail links. With regular bus services and convenient access to major routes, the village provides an ideal base for commuters while retaining a village atmosphere. Perfectly positioned between Northampton and Market Harborough, Brixworth boasts a wide range of amenities for everyday living. Within the village, residents enjoy two traditional pubs, a doctor's surgery, dental practice, library, convenience stores, post office, greengrocer, butcher, cafés, hairdressers, and a variety of independent shops.

For those who enjoy the outdoors, Brixworth Country Park and Pitsford Water are both within easy walking distance, offering sailing, fishing, cycling, and scenic waterside walks. Additional leisure activities include golf at nearby Church Brampton and Harlestone, as well as cricket and tennis clubs within the village itself. Families are particularly well catered for, with three pre-schools, a well regarded primary school. With excellent local secondary schools, and highly regarded private schools nearby.

Rich in history, Brixworth is home to the 7th-century All Saints' Church, a remarkable landmark that reflects the village's heritage. Combining outstanding amenities, excellent schooling, and picturesque surroundings, Brixworth offers an exceptional standard of village living.
