Set on a substantial plot, this three-bedroom end-of-terrace house offers flexible accommodation across two floors, generous outdoor space, and potential for further enhancement (STPP)

A well-presented three-bedroom end-of-terrace house occupying a generous plot in Enfield. Offering versatile accommodation across two floors, this property combines practical living spaces with extensive outdoor areas, along with potential for further enhancement, subject to the necessary consents.

The ground floor comprises an inner hallway providing access to the lounge and kitchen, with the kitchen leading to an adjoining utility room housing the combination boiler and offering additional storage. The layout provides both practical and flexible spaces across the ground floor.

On the first floor, three bedrooms are served by a modern shower room, complete with a mains-fed walk-in shower, heated towel rail, and contemporary fittings. The property benefits from double glazing and gas central heating throughout.

Externally, the property features a paved front garden providing off-street parking for two vehicles and gated access to the side garden. The rear garden combines lawn and paved areas, includes a timber shed, and allows gated access to the front and side. The size and layout of the plot may appeal to buyers seeking additional garden space or exploring potential options for extension or development, subject to planning permission.

Conveniently located close to Forty Hall Estate, local amenities, and transport links, the property is approximately 0.6 miles from Turkey Street Overground Station, providing connections into central London and beyond. Other nearby stations include Southbury and Enfield Town, offering further travel options.

This home provides flexible accommodation, well-proportioned bedrooms, and extensive outdoor areas, presenting opportunities for buyers to personalise or enhance the property according to their requirements.
