"Fishponds has been an incredibly happy home for us. We have many green spaces to choose from to walk our dog and often marvel at how being in Oldbury Court can feel like you're deep in the countryside, and we are either fifteen minutes from the city centre, or thirty minutes from Cotswolds, depending on which direction we go! We've spent a lot of time and money bringing the garden back to life, and watching all the butterflies fly around makes it all worth it (luckily they're faster than our cats!)"
