Description

Situated on Vancouver Road in Ham, this spacious end-terrace house offers a wonderful opportunity for families and individuals alike. Built in the 1950s, the property sits on a wide corner plot offering huge potential for extension. Inside, you will find a spacious reception/dining room, large kitchen/breakfast room, three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

One of the standout features of this property is the generous outdoor space. The rear garden, along with the large side garden, offers a fantastic area for gardening enthusiasts and there is also the potential for a large two storey side extension (STPP) for buyers looking to personalise their home and substantially increase it's size. Furthermore, there is the added advantage of off street parking, a garage and outside electricity points for fast 7kw EV charging.

Another feature of this home is its proximity to the river and Thames Path, perfect for leisurely strolls or enjoying the natural beauty of the area. Additionally, the property is well positioned for the many highly regarded local schools, making it an excellent choice for families seeking high quality education.

In summary, this end-terrace house on Vancouver Road is a promising prospect for anyone seeking a family home in a sought after location, with the added benefits of a large outdoor space and extension potential.
