Winscombe Street, N19

The heart of the home is the stunning full-width open plan kitchen, dining and reception room, an elegant and light-filled space with high ceilings, large sash windows and bespoke cabinetry. The contemporary kitchen has generous worktop space and integrated appliances, flowing into the dining area before opening into the reception room.

The principal bedroom enjoys direct access to a beautifully landscaped private garden, offering a peaceful retreat. The remaining bedrooms are equally generous, making the property ideal for families, guests or those requiring a home office. The property further benefits from two bathrooms and excellent built-in storage.

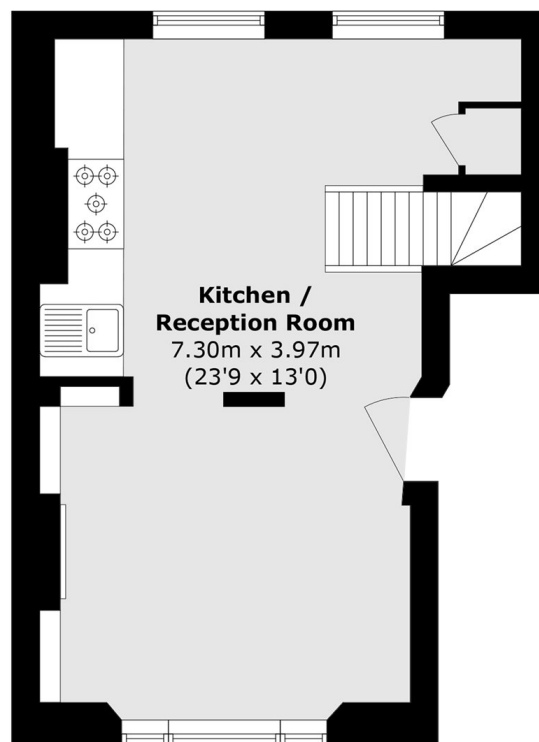

Outside, the private garden has been landscaped to create a secluded oasis with timber decking and ample space for outdoor dining and relaxation.
