Front External

An open slate porch with two traditional stone seats provides a practical and welcoming entrance-ideal for removing muddy boots after a day exploring the nearby fells. This leads directly into the entrance hall, where stairs rise to the first floor and doors give access to the living room and kitchen.

The inviting living room showcases exposed timber beams and a secondary-glazed picture window with a built-in seat, offering attractive views over open fields towards Kendal. A beautiful stone fireplace forms the focal point, featuring inset display niches, an oak lintel, a flagged hearth and a Morso multi-fuel stove.

Living Room

The dining area benefits from both front and rear aspects, with a front window seat and a rear glazed panel window with tiled sills. Character features include exposed beams, a lintel, fitted shelving and a display niche. The adjoining kitchen is fitted with a range of wall, base and drawer units, including a glazed display cabinet and wine rack. Work surfaces incorporate an inset stainless steel sink, complemented by partially tiled walls. Appliances include a built-in oven and a four-ring halogen hob with extractor hood, along with plumbing for a washing machine. There is also a useful pantry cupboard with power, space for a fridge and a stable door leading to the rear.

Fireplace

Upstairs, the return staircase leads to a landing with access to the loft via a hatch, along with a rear-facing window.

Bedrooms one, two, and three are all double rooms, each enjoying open views across the surrounding countryside towards Kendal. Bedroom four is a good-sized single room with a rear outlook, offering flexibility for use as a home office or study.

The bathroom is fitted with a three-piece suite comprising a panelled bath with a Mira shower over, wash hand basin, and WC, finished with complementary tiling and a chrome heated towel rail. A separate WC with wash hand basin adds convenience. An airing cupboard houses the gas-fired boiler and provides shelving for linen and towels.

Front External

The property also benefits from a private, enclosed rear garden, gravelled for ease of maintenance and bordered by attractive stone walling with planted beds and surrounding shrubbery that provide a pleasant sense of privacy. This versatile outdoor space is ideal for a bistro table and chairs, perfect for enjoying a morning coffee or evening drink, while also offering a practical area for hanging washing, all within a sheltered setting.
