The ground floor features a large and welcoming entrance hall, leading to an impressive double-length family and dining room with an attractive inglenook fireplace housing a woodburner and French doors opening onto the garden. There is also a refitted kitchen with integrated appliances and Belfast sink, a separate sitting room with exposed stonework and timbers, built-in storage and a small conservatory.

Upstairs, the impressive 7m (24ft) principal bedroom enjoys views over the garden and features a freestanding bath and twin sinks. There are two further generous bedrooms and a refitted shower room with walk-in shower.

The beautifully mature and private rear garden is a particular feature, with a large lawn, extensive vegetable plots, seating terrace, greenhouse and a wide variety of established trees and plants.

A tandem driveway to the side provides ample off-road parking and leads to a garage with power and light.
