DESCRIPTION

A substantial individually architect designed family home built in 1967 and has remained in the same family since being built. The property sits on a well-stocked and well established plot of approximately 0.50 acres. There is a dual height reception hall with curved staircase, large living room leading into the dining room as well as a well appointment Smallbone kitchen breakfast room with matching dining table and chairs. The property benefits from air source ducted heating to the main house and air source heating to radiators in the annexe. There are four spacious bedrooms on the first floor along with two separate shower rooms, one of which could link to the master bedroom to make a fabulous master bedroom suite.

Attached to the property is a one bedroom annexe with a good sized living room and double bedroom with en suite shower room.

Externally there is ample parking and brick built detached double garage. Wendron House did appear in various home magazines as a feature when the property was first built and would make a fantastic family home
