KEY FEATURES

Ground Floor

On entering Wistaria Cottage you appreciate the many character and traditional features on show. As you enter the spacious reception hall, the natural wooden aspects complimented by the neutral décor make a great place to greet family or friends. This leads to the very spacious sitting room and a great place to relax, unwind or entertain with the fireplace being the focal point of the room whilst the ambiance of calm is continued with the natural exposed wooden features. French doors lead through to the gardens and offer a natural flow from inside to outside in the summer months.

Off the reception hall the formal dining room is ideal for entertaining on those special occasions such as Christmas with family and friends creating a cozy but spacious feel with again the fireplace being the focal point of the room. This leads through to the kitchen/breakfast room and ideally suited for more informal entertaining such as a cup of coffee and a chat around the kitchen island. The kitchen is spacious light and airy and balanced with traditional features as well as the modern appliances you would expect for everyday living. A separate and useful utility sits off the kitchen with a substantial pantry for all your storage needs. A separate downstairs cloakroom off the reception hall completes the downstairs accommodation.

First Floor

The first floor like the ground floor blends timeless character with spacious modern comforts with its traditional styling and design. There are 4 generously sized bedrooms offering ample accommodation including the master suite with a delightful luxury ensuite and separate dressing room. The remaining bedrooms are all spacious and light and presented to a high standard complimented with the modern family bathroom. A large storage space completes the 1st floor accommodation.

SELLER INSIGHT

“ Wistaria Cottage has been far more than a house to us – it has been a retreat, a sanctuary, and a place filled with memories. From the moment you drive along the tree-lined approach, framed by rhododendrons, you feel the world slow down. Crossing the cattle grid and often spotting the wild herd of red deer in the nearby field still feels magical, even after all these years. Surrounded by trees and nestled within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, the cottage feels hidden away, peaceful and utterly private – like being on holiday every day.

We were first captivated by the sheer size of the rooms and the wonderful character throughout: original fireplaces, unique architectural details, and a sense of history that reflects the heritage of Chestall Park, once known as the hamlet of Chestall. Every property here is different, and that individuality is something truly special.

During our time here, we have lovingly enhanced the home – enlarging the kitchen with bespoke units and handcrafted woodwork, converting the fifth bedroom into a beautiful en-suite, restoring original doors, and adding thoughtful storage throughout. Outside, the oak canopy and doors create a warm welcome, while the south-facing garden is a true sun trap, complete with a pond, waterfall, mature apple tree, and spectacular double wisteria. It is a space made for summer barbecues, family gatherings, and quiet mornings with coffee.

Life here is deeply connected to nature. Deer, owls, woodpeckers, bats, foxes and countless birds are regular visitors, and wonderful walks across Gentleshaw Common, Castle Ring and Cannock Chase begin right from the front door. With welcoming neighbours, four pubs within walking distance, excellent local amenities, and easy transport links, the balance of rural tranquillity and convenience is perfect.

We will miss the cosiness of winter evenings by the log burner, festive celebrations with family, and the feeling – often echoed by guests – that staying here is like a holiday. Wistaria Cottage is truly one of a kind, and we hope its next owners will love it as much as we have.*
