For Sale Freehold Offers In The Region Of £190,000

Situated in the sought after town of Ossett, this superbly presented two bedroom semi detached property offers well proportioned accommodation throughout. Boasting ample reception space, and a generous rear garden complete with a timber built workshop/shed and summer house, this is a home not to be missed.

The property comprises an entrance hall with staircase access to the first floor and doors leading through to the lounge. The lounge flows seamlessly into the kitchen diner, which in turn provides access to both the utility room and the rear garden. To the first floor, the landing gives access to two bedrooms and the house bathroom. Bedroom One benefits from a double door storage cupboard as well as fitted wardrobes, while Bedroom Two also features fitted wardrobes and provides access to the loft. Externally, to the front of the property, there is a lawned garden with a paved pathway running along the side, alongside a pebbled driveway providing off road parking for one vehicle. The space is enclosed by timber fencing and hedging. To the rear, the garden is generous in size and predominantly laid to lawn, complemented by planted borders and a patio area ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining. A timber built workshop/shed with power and lighting, along with a summer house, further enhances the outdoor space. The garden is fully enclosed, making it ideal for both pets and children.

The property is ideally located for a range of buyers, including first-time purchasers, growing families, and professional couples. A variety of local amenities, including shops and schools, are within walking distance, particularly within Ossett town centre. Ossett is conveniently positioned between Wakefield and Dewsbury, offering excellent transport links, including nearby train stations with connections to Leeds, Manchester, and London. Regular local bus routes are also available, and for those commuting further afield, the M1 and M62 motorway networks are just a short drive away.

An internal inspection is highly recommended to fully appreciate everything this fantastic home has to offer.
