This 1-bed traditional top floor flat in need of full modernisation is well situated for a good choice of shopping facilities including large supermarkets and a good choice of public transport including the new tram service. The nearby Omni Centre offers a selection of bars, restaurants, gym and a multi-screen cinema. The new St. James Quarter offers further restaurants, bars, luxury cinema and a choice of high street stores. The property is also within easy distance of the ocean Terminal also offering a multi-screen cinema, 24-hour gym and shopping facilities.

The property opens to a hallway with 2 built in storage cupboards, an entry phone and the remaining accommodation off. From the hallway you enter the spacious front facing living room with several traditional features including a bay window with views towards Calton Hill, traditional fireplace within a surround, ornate cornice and ceiling rose, Edinburgh Press, and a box room off. To the rear of the property is what could be dining kitchen with a deep built in pantry cupboard and a utility room off. The utility room has a window and sink unit. A double bedroom is found to the rear. Completing the accommodation is a rear facing bathroom with bath, WC, and a wash hand basin.

Additionally, the property has access to a well maintained communal rear garden and zoned on street parking.

NOTE - There is no central heating system
