Guide Price: £350,000 - £375,000. TIMELESS CHARM, ENDLESS POTENTIAL!

Welcome to Vernon Cottage, a charming & deceptively spacious period home, bursting with CHARACTER & VERSATILITY. Boasting an abundance of original features, generous living accommodation & rare opportunity to create something special!

Situated in a highly regarded & well-served village the cottage enjoys convenient access to an excellent range of amenities, with superb transport links to Newark, Lincoln & beyond.

Stepping inside, the entrance hall leads to a characterful lounge, complete with original fireplace & attractive parquet flooring. The spacious open-plan breakfast kitchen provides a fantastic hub for everyday life, flowing seamlessly into an IMPRESSIVE SITTING/ DINING ROOM where a log burner helps creates a warm atmosphere.

The first floor offers FOUR BEDROOMS & A STYLISH BATHROOM. Thoughtfully designed to complement the cottage's traditional character. The master bedroom benefits from a dressing room & storage area, presenting options for the creation of an en-suite/ enhanced bedroom. Potential awaits above, with access from the fourth bedroom up to a substantial attic space, offering scope for imaginative use/conversion, subject to approvals.

Externally, Vernon Cottage occupies a generous plot, approached via a gravelled driveway providing parking for multiple vehicles. A particularly appealing feature is the detached two-storey brick outbuilding, which, although requiring refurbishment, offers tremendous potential for an annexe space, subject to permissions.

The delightful & private garden provides a wonderful outdoor retreat, featuring several secluded seating areas & space for the whole family! There are exciting OPPORTUNITIES FOR AN EXTENSION! Previous planning permission has been passed, with inspiration for alterations, subject to consent.

Available with NO CHAIN! This is a great opportunity to acquire a home filled with PERSONALITY, PERIOD CHARM & ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES!

EXTERNALLY:

This attractive and deceptively spacious character home occupies a convenient and central position within a highly regarded and well-served village.

The property is approached via a dropped kerb, providing vehicular access onto a gravelled driveway, offering off-road parking for multiple vehicles. A block-paved pathway leads to the side entrance door, with an external wall light. The front aspect is enclosed by walled boundaries and provides access to a substantial detached outbuilding, offering tremendous potential for conversion or alternative uses, subject to the necessary consents. Additional practical features include a log store and outside water tap.

A timber pedestrian gate on the driveway opens into the wonderfully well-appointed rear garden. Predominantly laid to lawn. This delightful outdoor space has been thoughtfully landscaped to incorporate a variety of secluded seating/entertaining areas, including raised decking, a charming timber-framed pergola and a dedicated space for outdoor barbecues.

There is a pear tree, log store, a useful timber outbuilding, areas of low-maintenance artificial lawn and raised planting beds, creating an attractive balance of practicality and character. The generous garden also provides ample scope for a substantial rear extension, with previously granted planning permission in place and relevant footings, this presents an exciting opportunity for prospective purchasers to explore the property's future potential.

Enjoying a high degree of privacy, the garden is fully enclosed by established brick-walled boundaries to both sides and the rear.
