COMING SOON TO NUTFIELD HIGH STREET

A character setting, village location and a collection of individual apartments make The White House an interesting addition to the local rental market.

Full details launching shortly – contact Ralph James Lettings to register your interest ahead of release.

Set along Nutfield High Street, The White House is an attractive period building which has evolved over the years to create a collection of individual apartments, offering something a little different from the typical modern development.

The setting is a large part of the appeal. Life here places you within the heart of Nutfield, surrounded by the village's established character while remaining well positioned for Redhill, Reigate and the wider Surrey countryside.

Inside The White House is a varied collection of seven homes, with one and 2-bedroom apartments forming part of the building. Rather than feeling uniform, the individual layouts and period origins give the development a personality of its own.

Further details, individual apartment specifications, availability and photography will be released shortly.

Register your interest now for early viewing opportunities.
