This stylish, purpose-built second-floor flat is ideal for first-time buyers and savvy investors alike. The heart of the home is the bright kitchen and reception room, flooded with natural light from two windows. This inviting area features a modern kitchen finished with classic white metro-tile splashbacks, creating a crisp, timeless look that works equally well for relaxing or entertaining. Additional built-in storage is conveniently located in the hallway.

The accommodation includes a comfortable principal bedroom and a versatile second bedroom. The property is further enhanced by a well-designed modern bathroom, where acacia-wood under-sink drawers and matching bath panelling complement a striking stone accent wall, creating a calm, spa-like feel.

Ideally located in the heart of Walthamstow Village, the property is surrounded by independent shops, cafés, and restaurants set within a charming historic environment. The pedestrianised village centre of Orford Road is home to local favourites such as Eat 17 and The Queen's Arms, while the nearby Ravenswood Industrial Estate has become a vibrant cultural hub, hosting God's Own Junkyard, Wild Card Brewery, and Mother's Ruin Gin Palace. Walthamstow Central station is approximately half a mile away, offering excellent transport links.
