Hidden behind a beautiful wood and cast iron gate, this two bed apartment provides a welcome sanctum away from the clamour of the City. Beyond a jet black farmhouse door sits an airy living and dining area lavished in colour dipped walls and American oak flooring, lit by exposed industrial hanging lights. The custom made kitchen units, hand painted in rich earthy green with exquisite marble worktops, house a five top gas stove and double oven set against contemporary subway tiling, while a bespoke crafted island boasts lockable wheels for ultimate customisable living options. Ascending the natural sisal carpeted staircase, complete with tailored steel railings, you'll discover the bright first floor double bedrooms. Both boast a glut of space and natural light, with one providing access to the private decked roof terrace via two wood framed doorways. Marvel over views of Inner North London rooftops and greenery whilst surveying the communal garden area below, it's winding path framed by carefully selected planting and raised spotlights. Peering into the bathroom you'll find a desirable roll top bath and rainforest shower set against subway tiling with contrast grouting,
