Enter the cottage via the charming entrance porch, with flagstone floor and built-in slate benches; perfect for the removal of muddy walking boots! Across the threshold is the dual aspect living/dining room, decorated in quintessential cottage fashion. The room is brimming with character and original features, including gorgeous exposed beams, an open fireplace set into a stone surround with slate hearth, and a unique spiral staircase to lead upstairs. The room is finished with wooden flooring and exposed timber lintels, and is quite clearly the beating heart of the home. Unwind on the sofa whilst cosied up in blankets in the winter, or allow a warm breeze in through the windows in the summer... the room will welcome you all year round.

At the back of the room is the door to the bright kitchen, which is stylishly decorated and fitted with painted wall and base units and granite countertops. The dual aspect kitchen overlooks the garden, and features a Belfast style sink with mixer tap underneath one window. The room is lovely and light, with the benefit of two skylights. There is a range of integrated appliances, comprising a Beko fridge/freezer, Smeg oven with 5 ring gas hob, Hotpoint dishwasher and Hotpoint washing machine. A large cupboard currently houses the Worcester boiler. The farmhouse door allows access out to the pretty garden.

Stairs down from the living and dining room take you to the lower ground floor, where more stairs lead up to bedroom two. The lower ground floor includes a three piece shower room, and the third bedroom. Bedroom three is currently a single room, although it has the space to be a double, and is illuminated by spotlights on the ceiling. A door provides access outside, to the front of the property, and the room includes an electric wood burner in a stone surround. The deep windowsill provides a space to sit and relax in the peace and quiet, perhaps with a hot cup of tea.

The part-tiled shower room downstairs comprises a shower cubicle with Sottini shower, a wall-hung wash hand basin and WC. There is a small window for ventilation.

The stairs to access the first floor benefit from built-in bookshelves for storage or decoration. Upstairs, bedroom two is a large double room, with wooden floorboards and a charming feature fireplace in an attractive timber surround and stone hearth. The double aspect room enjoys views over the front of the property and the rear gardens, and benefits from a skylight for natural light. A gorgeous freestanding bathtub is another fantastic feature of the room, with claw feet.

Ascending from the living room, up the wooden spiral staircase, you will reach bedroom one which is a double room, featuring a charming door to steps down into the garden. There is a large skylight amongst the exposed timber beams, allowing lots of natural light into the room. The bedroom boasts plenty of storage space, with a spacious cupboard for hanging clothes, and built-in under eaves shelving. There is a part-tiled en suite shower room, which includes a shower cubicle with Mira shower, a wall-hung wash hand basin, and WC.

The rear garden is mostly laid to lawn, with a lovely patio terrace for outdoor dining. Surrounded by mature shrubs and trees it is beautifully private, and really feels like your own secret garden! There is a very useful stone-built outbuilding around the back of the garden, which would be perfect as a potting shed or as storage for bikes or outdoor equipment.
