WHAT'S GREAT?

Nestled in the desirable area of Thorpeville, just a short stroll from Moulton village centre and its excellent range of amenities, Cheddleton House is a beautifully presented three-bedroom detached 1930s home. Offering superb road links to the A45 and A43, A perfect blend of convenience and peaceful surroundings, ideal for family living.

Full of charm and character, the home retains a wealth of original features, including parquet flooring, original internal doors, and a classic Belfast sink in the kitchen. With generous living space and exciting potential to extend (subject to the necessary planning permissions), this is a rare opportunity to create a truly exceptional family home.

The accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall with original parquet flooring and a useful cloak store. To the front, a bay-fronted formal dining room features a working fireplace, while the bright and spacious lounge—also with a working fireplace—flows seamlessly into a conservatory overlooking the stunning rear garden.

The west-facing garden extends to over 300ft, backing onto open fields and offering gated pedestrian access. It is beautifully maintained with mature apple trees, shrubs, and planting, as well as a delightful treehouse—perfect for families and outdoor enjoyment.

The kitchen/breakfast room enjoys views over the garden and is fitted with a Rangemaster oven, original Belfast sink, dishwasher, and a practical larder cupboard. This leads through to a study area, utility space, and a convenient downstairs WC.

Upstairs, the property offers three generous double bedrooms and a well-appointed four-piece family bathroom suite, all presented in bright and spacious condition.

Further benefits include a spacious attached single garage and off-road parking for up to four vehicles.

This wonderful home must be viewed to fully appreciate its character, generous plot, and peaceful location.
