Solihull is located approximately 9 miles (14.5 km) south-east of Birmingham city centre. Situated in the heart of England, it is considered to be a prosperous and highly sought-after residential area. The town is the administrative centre of the larger Metropolitan Borough of Solihull and has a range of first-rate local amenities, including parks, sports and leisure facilities, schools, libraries, and a theatre/arts complex. The pedestrianised shopping centre has a diverse range of high-street shops, boutiques and speciality restaurants as well as a multi-screen cinema. There are direct commuter train services to Birmingham and London and easy access to the M5, M6, M40 and M42. Birmingham International Airport and Railway Station are approximately 20 minutes drive away, just next to the National Exhibition Centre. Solihull lies at the edge of an extensive green-belt area with easy access to the Warwickshire countryside.
