Set within the small rural hamlet of Lower Longwood, near Eaton Constantine, this detached country residence occupies an attractive plot extending to approximately 0.77 acres, offering a measured balance between countryside living and accessibility. Positioned along the B4380, the property benefits from convenient connections to both Shrewsbury and Telford, making it well suited to those seeking a quieter setting without isolation.

The surrounding area provides a strong sense of place, characterised by farmland, individual homes and open countryside, with opportunities for walking and outdoor pursuits close at hand, including The Wrekin. Everyday amenities, schooling and wider services are available within easy reach, while Shrewsbury offers a broader range of cultural, retail and leisure facilities. The property presents as a well-considered home, combining practical accommodation with a setting that supports both relaxed living and connectivity.

The accommodation has been thoughtfully extended to create a well-balanced internal layout, offering flexibility for a range of living arrangements. At its centre, a farmhouse-style kitchen provides a sociable focal point, suited to both daily use and informal gatherings. The principal reception room is arranged around a wood-burning stove, adding character and warmth, while a substantial sunroom/conservatory introduces a bright additional living space with views across the gardens. Further features include beamed ceilings in selected rooms, a utility room, and bedroom accommodation supported by three bathrooms, including a principal bedroom with ensuite.

Externally, the property is approached via a sweeping driveway, establishing a strong sense of arrival and providing ample parking. A detached double garage, together with additional garage space and a workshop/store, supports practical requirements. The gardens, extending to approximately 0.77 acres, are arranged with lawned areas, established planting and open sections, offering both privacy and usability. The grounds provide a calm and enclosed environment, well suited to outdoor seating, recreation and general enjoyment, while maintaining a pleasant rural outlook.
