Set against the historic skyline of St. Andrew's Church, The Courtyard Mews is an exclusive collection of five beautifully crafted two-bedroom homes, combining architectural clarity with environmental consciousness. Hidden within a peaceful gated enclave in the heart of Farnham, these residences offer a rare retreat in a town where heritage and innovation meet. Thoughtfully designed for modern living, the Mews Houses bring together clean lines, quality materials, and considered details to create spaces that feel both timeless and forward-thinking. With sustainability at their core, they offer a lifestyle rooted in calm, connection, and care for the future.

Each home has been crafted with intention, from wrap-around glazing that welcomes natural light to private courtyard gardens that offer moments of peace. Interiors include a bespoke British-made timber kitchen with sleek breakfast bar, generous dining and living spaces, and two well-proportioned bedrooms, all within a future-focused layout designed to adapt with your lifestyle and age.

Rooted in Farnham's rich past but built for tomorrow, The Courtyard Mews celebrates refined simplicity, timeless quality, and quiet innovation.

Prices start from £800,000. Two of the five mews homes are already reserved.
