Offers Over £300,000

A charming period Welsh cottage set within approximately 1.85 acres, offering an idyllic lifestyle opportunity on the edge of the Teifi Valley. This delightful three-bedroom semi-detached home blends character features - such as exposed beams, original fireplaces, and traditional flooring, with practical modern living. The heart of the home is a welcoming kitchen/diner with bespoke oak units and a newly installed Rayburn range, while the cosy living room provides a perfect retreat with its wood burning stove. Outside, the property truly comes into its own. The land is thoughtfully divided into four paddocks, complete with a stable and livestock shelter, making it ideal for those seeking a smallholding or equestrian lifestyle. Established gardens with feature raised vegetable beds, a fruit orchard, and a variety of seating areas, alongside a charming duck pond and chicken run - perfect for self-sufficient living. Additional outbuildings, including a substantial stone workshop and outhouse, offer excellent potential for hobbies, storage, or further development (subject to consent). Enjoying a private yet accessible location just 1.5 miles from Llandysul, the property combines rural tranquillity with convenient access to local amenities, schools, and the Ceredigion coastline.

Location

The property is conveniently located adjoining the A475 Lampeter to New Castle Emlyn roadway in the locality known as Gorriig, some 1.5 miles from the Teifi Valley market town Llandysul. Having a good range of facilities, including 3-9 schooling, leisure center, Doctors Surgery, Chemist and High street with traditional shops etc. Also being home to the Teifi Paddles canoeing center, the property is also within close proximity to the Ceredigion Heritage Coast line with its many sand beaches and secluded coves, such as Llangrannog, Aberporth, Mwnt, Cwmttydu etc.
