Full Description

Entrance to this attractive 1930s extended detached family home is via a double glazed front door opening into an enclosed storm porch, with a further stained-glass door leading into a spacious and welcoming entrance hall. The hall features stairs rising to the first floor, understairs storage, attractive stained-glass windows and access to the principal ground floor rooms.

To the front of the property, the bay-fronted living room provides a cosy retreat, centred around a wood-burning stove. Also located on the ground floor is a dedicated home office, currently utilised for storage but offering an ideal workspace with power points, internet connection and a side aspect double glazed window. The heart of the home is the impressive extended open-plan kitchen, dining and family area. Designed for modern family living and entertaining, this generous space benefits from underfloor heating, rear aspect bi-fold doors opening directly onto the garden, flooding the room with natural light. The kitchen is fitted with a range of eye and base level units with work surfaces over, a sink unit with mixer tap, boiling water supply and waste disposal, space and plumbing for a dishwasher, American-style fridge/freezer, and a useful walk-in pantry. Two glazed roof lanterns and a rear aspect window further enhance the bright and airy feel. There is ample space for a large dining table and chairs, while a utility cupboard provides space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer. The adjoining snug, currently arranged as a home gym, offers a versatile reception area and would make an excellent family room or relaxation space. An inner lobby provides additional storage and gives access to the integral garage and covered side lean-to. The larger-than-average garage benefits from an electric up-and-over door, power and lighting, and access to a cloakroom fitted with a low-level WC and wash hand basin. Completing the ground floor accommodation, the covered side lean-to offers excellent storage and practical access to the rear garden via a double glazed door.

The first floor accommodation is accessed via a central landing featuring a side aspect double glazed window, built-in airing cupboard housing the gas-fired boiler (approximately two years old), and loft access via a pull-down ladder. The loft is partially boarded and offers potential for conversion, subject to the necessary planning permissions and building regulations.

The principal bedroom is a generous double room enjoying a front aspect double glazed bay window, fitted wardrobes and bedroom furniture. A door leads through to the en-suite shower room, fitted with a shower cubicle, vanity wash hand basin and low-level WC. Bedroom two is a further well-proportioned double room with a rear aspect double glazed window overlooking the garden. Bedroom three is a single bedroom benefiting from a front aspect double glazed window and useful built-in storage over the stairwell. The family bathroom is fitted with a modern suite comprising a P-shaped panel enclosed bath with mixer shower over and fitted screen, vanity wash hand basin with storage beneath, low-level WC, heated towel rail and a rear aspect double glazed window.
