In the authentic heart of Es Pujols, just a few minutes from its stunning beach, stands a truly one-of-a-kind artist's home: a creative retreat where design, nature, and tranquility come together in perfect harmony.

Set in a private and peaceful area, yet conveniently close to the sea and local amenities, this property offers a rare balance between privacy and vibrant Mediterranean living.

The interiors reflect the artistic soul of the house, with spacious, bright, and versatile rooms designed for both everyday living and sharing meaningful moments.

The heart of the home is a large open-plan kitchen and living area — a welcoming and sociable space that can elegantly transform into a comfortable bedroom when needed. Every area has been thoughtfully designed to adapt to the lifestyle of its residents, always maintaining a refined and relaxed atmosphere.

The property also features an outdoor bathroom, a very convenient solution for guests.

Outside, the private swimming pool invites you to unwind under the Formentera sun, while the indoor gym enhances the experience by offering a dedicated space for wellness and self-care.

A place where art, nature, and comfort blend to create a truly unique and unforgettable atmosphere. Perfect for those seeking inspiration, serenity, and the magic of the Mediterranean, just steps from the sea.
