£420,000

A beautifully presented three-bedroom home combining character features with an impressive contemporary rear extension. The accommodation includes a bay-fronted lounge with log-burning stove, a generous kitchen/dining room with sleek cabinetry, quartz work surfaces and exposed brick detailing, opening through to a superb orangery with a glazed roof, extensive garden glazing and direct access onto the composite decking. There is also a separate utility room, ground-floor WC and garage. Upstairs, the principal bedroom features extensive fitted sliding wardrobes, accompanied by a generous second double bedroom, third bedroom and an impressive contemporary bathroom with a large walk-in rainfall shower. The rear garden is another real feature of the property. Designed to offer a combination of space for relaxing, entertaining and enjoying the outdoors, the composite decking immediately outside the orangery creates a natural continuation of the living accommodation and an ideal setting for outdoor furniture. Beyond, the garden provides further usable space with established planting adding colour and interest, while the enclosed setting gives it a comfortable, established feel. Viewed through the extensive glazing of the orangery, the garden also provides an attractive backdrop to the main living space throughout the year. Further benefits include a fully boarded loft and driveway, completing a particularly versatile and well-finished home.
