Winslet Place, Oxford Road, Reading, RG30 1EN

A well-presented two-bedroom apartment ideally positioned within walking distance of Reading town centre and West Reading railway station. Combining attractive landscaped views with exceptional convenience and connectivity, this property is well suited to professionals, first-time buyers and investors alike. The accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a bright and spacious sitting/dining area enjoying picturesque open views across landscaped surroundings, and a well-appointed kitchen. There are two generous double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with en-suite shower room, which also benefits from the same attractive outlook.

A key feature of the property is its excellent accessibility. A bus stop is located directly outside the development's car park, serving a 24-hour route and providing convenient links across Reading and beyond. The apartment is situated directly opposite Reading Retail Park, offering immediate access to a wide range of everyday amenities including Lidl, B&M and The Gym Group, with both a petrol station and a post office immediately adjacent to the development making day-to-day living exceptionally convenient.
