Dorchester, the county town of Dorset, is a vibrant historic market town that blends rich heritage with modern amenities. Known for its Roman origins and literary links to Thomas Hardy, the town, and the fabulous Brewery Square, offers a wide range of shops, cafés, restaurants, and cultural attractions such as the Dorset Museum and the Keep Military Museum. Dorchester benefits from excellent travel links, with two railway stations providing direct services to London Waterloo, Bristol, and Weymouth, as well as good road connections via the A35 and A37. The surrounding areas include picturesque villages, rolling countryside, and the nearby Jurassic Coast, a UNESCO World Heritage Site offering stunning coastal walks and beaches. Residents and visitors also enjoy access to leisure centres, schools, parks, and weekly markets, making Dorchester and its surroundings an attractive place to live and explore.

A front door opens onto a porch that provides the ideal space to decant and store outdoor wear. From there, a further door leads to a hallway with ‘Camaro’ flooring that continues throughout the ground floor.

The sitting room enjoys generous dimensions and receives plentiful natural light gained via a front aspect bay window. The room is finished in modern décor and features a central biofuel stove. An opening lead through to a separate and stylish dining room. The contemporary kitchen is well-appointed and fitted with a range of wall and base level units with worksurfaces over and splashback. There is a ‘Caple’ 1 ½ bowl sink and drainer, and space is allocated for appliances. A door leads to the utility and ground floor WC. The rear aspect conservatory is a offers further versatility and enjoys direct access onto the rear garden.

Stairs rise to the first floor where all four bedrooms and the shower room are situated. All bedrooms benefit from natural light gained via either a front or rear aspect window, whilst bedrooms two and three offer fitted storage. The family shower room is fitted with a modern suite comprising a shower, WC and pedestal wash hand basin set into a vanity unit. The room is partly tiled with wood effect flooring.

Externally, the property benefits from an enclosed, rear garden, predominately laid to lawn with an area of paved patio abutting the property. Additionally, there is a bike storage unit and purpose-built office/studio with bi-fold doors, power and lighting.
