

Highbury | Monkseaton | NE25 8EF

£310,000

Occupying a generous plot within a highly regarded part of Monkseaton, this three-bedroom semi-detached home offers spacious accommodation, a west-facing rear garden and excellent potential to modernise and create a superb long-term home. The property is approached via a driveway providing off-street parking and shared accessway to the garage. Internally, the accommodation retains many attractive features associated with homes of this era, including bay windows, decorative ceiling detailing and generously proportioned rooms throughout. A porch opens into the welcoming entrance hallway, where there is also a useful ground floor WC. To the front of the property, the bay-fronted living room provides an elegant principal reception space centred around a feature fireplace. To the rear, a separate dining room enjoys direct access into the adjoining sun room, creating a versatile arrangement that could suit a variety of lifestyles and provides excellent views over the garden. The kitchen offers a range of fitted units together with direct access to the rear garden and presents further opportunity for improvement and reconfiguration. To the first floor, the accommodation continues with three bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from a bay window and extensive fitted wardrobes, while the second and third bedrooms are both well-proportioned and include fitted storage. A separate shower room and individual WC complete the first-floor layout. Externally, the west-facing rear garden is a standout feature, incorporating lawned areas, mature planting and established borders, creating an excellent outdoor space that enjoys afternoon and evening sunshine. The garage and driveway further enhance the practicality of the property. Conveniently positioned for Monkseaton's local amenities, highly regarded schools, transport links and the coastline, this is a home with considerable potential in a location that remains consistently popular with buyers.
