RP&C Estate Agents are delighted to bring to the market this substantial and impressive fully detached family residence, ideally positioned within the highly regarded area of Shoeburyness on the borders of Thorpe Bay.

Occupying a particularly attractive position within this popular residential setting, the property offers an enviable combination of space, versatility and location, with the beautiful Shoeburyness coastline, beaches and seafront all within easy reach. Set within a peaceful residential position, yet conveniently placed for a wealth of everyday amenities, transport links, schools and leisure facilities, this is a home that genuinely lends itself to modern family life.

Internally, the property extends to just over 2,000 square feet of accommodation, providing an excellent amount of living and entertaining space arranged over two floors.

Upon entering, an inviting reception hallway immediately gives a sense of the scale of the accommodation, with a luxurious guest cloakroom conveniently positioned off the entrance.

The ground floor is particularly impressive, offering three versatile reception rooms. The principal living room provides a wonderfully comfortable setting for relaxing and features an impressive brick-built fireplace, creating an attractive focal point to the room. There is also a generous formal dining room, perfect for family meals and entertaining, together with a further conservatory which provides an additional reception space with lovely views and access towards the garden. Completing the ground floor is a useful home office, ideal for those working remotely or requiring a dedicated study, alongside a substantial kitchen with a designated breakfast area. A separate utility room provides valuable additional storage and practical space.

Moving upstairs, the generous landing leads to four well proportioned bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from its own en-suite facilities. A family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms.

Externally, the property continues to impress. The private rear garden provides a wonderful outdoor environment for families, entertaining and relaxing, whilst a useful summer house/outbuilding offers an abundance of potential uses, whether as storage, a hobby room, home gym, workshop or simply a peaceful retreat.

To the front, there is ample off-road parking, together with access to an unusually generous approximately one and a half width garage, providing excellent storage and parking options. Further benefits include double glazing and gas-fired central heating.

Noredale is a highly desirable residential setting within Shoeburyness, perfectly placed for those looking to combine spacious family living with the attractions of the Essex coast.

The area is particularly well served for families, with Richmond Avenue Primary School being the designated primary school for the street, while Shoeburyness High School is the designated secondary school. There are also private schools close to hand.

The coastline is one of the area's greatest attractions, with the beautiful beaches and open spaces of Shoeburyness and Shoebury Common providing an excellent setting for walks, days by the sea and enjoying the outdoors. Local shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities are also readily accessible.

For commuters, both Shoeburyness and Thorpe Bay railway stations are within approximately a mile of Noredale, providing convenient rail connections towards Southend and London.

For those searching for a sizeable detached home in a desirable coastal location, with the flexibility to accommodate a growing family and modern lifestyle, this property deserves to be viewed.

RP&C Estate Agents strongly recommend an internal inspection to fully appreciate the size, versatility and position this exceptional family home has to offer.
