 (Terms & conditions apply - see below).

The brand new property is offered unfurnished, or furnished for an extra cost. It has exposed services and concrete floors, giving luxurious and contemporary living, with an industrial aesthetic. The bright and airy open-plan design floods natural light into the property and creates a welcoming yet functional space. The high-spec kitchen benefits from super-efficient integrated appliances. In addition to two good sized bedrooms with cleverly designed integrated storage, there is a stylish bathroom.

High levels of insulation, triple glazed windows and Mechanical Ventilation Heat Recovery (MVHR) are just some of the features which lower the heating demand in winter and keep the property cool during the summer. The property has unparalleled efficiency and makes it easy for occupiers to live sustainably and with a lower carbon footprint.

There is no lift in the building.

Ställ is in an excellent location on the canal and surrounded by woodland. It's within easy walking distance of local amenities including Kirkstall Bridge retail park and Headingley train station. Leeds city centre can be reached on foot or bike along the canal plus there are regular bus services.
