A well-presented, purpose-built two-bedroom apartment set within a popular residential block, offering communal gardens and residents' parking. The first floor property is self-contained and has been recently decorated, providing a bright and modern living environment.

Large windows throughout create a light and open feel, enhancing the spacious layout. Ideally located within walking distance of Hadley Common, the apartment also benefits from excellent local schools, shops, and transport links.

High Barnet Underground Station (Northern Line) and New Barnet Station are both easily accessible, offering direct connections to Central London, including King's Cross and Moorgate.
