A charming and beautifully situated two-bedroom semi-detached home nestled in the popular residential setting of Redwood Drive, Tividale (B69). Perfectly positioned for professionals, couples, or small families, this attractive home combines peaceful canal-side living with effortless access to Birmingham, Oldbury, Dudley, and regional commuter links.

Ground Floor:
Approached via a private driveway providing off-street parking, the property opens into a bright, welcoming living room centered around a feature stone-effect fireplace. A large front bow window floods the space with abundant natural light, complemented by attractive wood-effect flooring. To the rear, the contemporary kitchen diner features stylish white cabinetry, generous worktop surfaces, a breakfast bar peninsula, and a freestanding electric cooker with ceramic hob. A direct access door leads out into the private rear garden.

First Floor:
Upstairs hosts two well-proportioned bedrooms, each with double glazing and neutral decor. The standout family bathroom offers an exceptional touch of luxury, fully tiled and fitted with a deluxe whirlpool spa bath with hydrotherapy jets and shower over, a designer vessel sink with chrome monobloc mixer tap on a dark wood vanity unit, low-level WC, and chrome heated towel rail.

Outside & Grounds:
The private, fully enclosed rear garden is tiered with patio and lawn areas, backing directly onto a tranquil canal with picturesque tree-lined views—providing an idyllic outdoor retreat. A front lawn and private tarmac driveway complete the exterior.
