📊 EPC Rating

A well-positioned two-bedroom detached park home, pleasantly situated within the highly regarded Clock Inn Park in Lydney, enjoying a particularly attractive leafy outlook to the rear. Occupying a quieter spot in the corner of the development, the property benefits from air conditioning and its own private garden without the need for any additional rented land.

The accommodation is light and well-proportioned throughout, with a practical layout ideally suited to low-maintenance living. A welcoming entrance leads through to a central hallway, providing access to all rooms. The main sitting/dining room is a generous space, offering plenty of room for both relaxing and entertaining, made even more comfortable with air conditioning. An adjoining conservatory enhances the connection to the garden and outlook beyond.

The kitchen is neatly arranged with a range of fitted units and worktop space, complemented by a separate utility room providing additional storage and direct access outside. There are two comfortable double bedrooms, both well-sized and benefitting from fitted storage, along with a modern en-suite shower room and an additional shower room, offering flexibility and convenience.

Externally, the property enjoys a good-sized garden, designed with ease of maintenance in mind while still providing space to sit out and enjoy the surroundings. The leafy backdrop adds a real sense of privacy and tranquillity. Further benefits include a single garage and driveway parking.

A well-balanced home in a popular and established park setting, offering comfortable living with a pleasant outlook and practical outdoor space.

Situation

Lydney is a hamlet next to the picturesque village of Urchfont which forms part of the famous Pewsey Vale with its surrounding rolling downland. There is a farm shop, café and hairdressers all within a short stroll. Urchfont has an excellent primary school, Church, public house, community shop, post office, and other local amenities. Planks farm shop and café are only a short distance away. The nearby market town of Devizes is about 4 miles away and Pewsey, where there is a mainline railway station (Paddington about one hour), is 8 miles away. The other major centres of Swindon, Chippenham, Marlborough, Bath and Salisbury are all within a thirty mile radius. There is a convenient bus stop at the entrance to Clock Inn.
