Set on the eastern edge of Crediton, the Willow Walk area has long been a popular choice for families. With countryside walks just seconds away, along with easy access to schools, supermarkets and the leisure centre, it's a location that works particularly well for day to day life.

Hedgerow Close itself is a small cul-de-sac with very little passing traffic, giving it a safe and friendly feel. The houses here are set back from the road behind front gardens, with good sized rear gardens and parking and garages to the side.

This particular property is offered to the market with no onward chain and provides well balanced family accommodation in a position that remains consistently popular with buyers.

Inside, the layout has evolved from the original design to better suit modern living. The living room sits to the front of the house, while across the rear the former kitchen and dining room have been opened up to create a spacious kitchen/dining room, making it a far more sociable and practical space for everyday life. Leading directly from the dining area is a conservatory which provides additional reception space and enjoys views across the rear garden, creating a natural link between the house and outside space.

Upstairs are two double bedrooms along with a single bedroom, all served by the family bathroom.

The property benefits from uPVC double glazing and mains gas central heating.

Outside, the south facing rear garden is a real feature. A generous decked seating area provides the perfect place for entertaining or simply enjoying the sunshine, while beyond, the garden becomes a riot of colour through the spring and summer months thanks to the abundance of established planting and borders. The result is a garden that feels both private and vibrant, while still remaining manageable.

To the side is a driveway providing off-road parking and leading to the garage.

Overall, this is a well positioned family home in a sought-after location, offering a wonderful garden, practical living space and the advantage of no onward chain.

CREDITON is a vibrant market town with a bustling high street full of independent shops, eateries, and pubs. In recent years a diverse arts scene has grown to include all manner of mediums, with the performing arts making use of the town's market square where, in the summer months, a range of activities take place. The market square is also home to the town's twice-monthly farmer's market. The town has an equally significant past. It was originally the first Bishopic in Devon and the imposing Parish Church of The Holy Cross now stands where once stood Devon's first Saxon cathedral (909-1050AD). It is also the birthplace of Saint Boniface, one of the founding fathers of the Christian church in Europe. Easily commutable to Exeter and with two primary schools, a secondary school with sixth form as well as a wide range of necessary amenities, it's clear why the town is a firm favourite with locals and relocators alike.
