

70 Brook Lane, Felixstowe, IP11 7LB

£600,000 FREEHOLD

Nestled within established and secluded gardens approximately 100 yards from the sea in one of Felixstowe's most sought after and select residential locations is this rarely available charming detached cottage dating from the 1920s of part timbered and part rendered brick construction beneath a Norfolk Reeded thatched roof.

The accommodation briefly comprises entrance lobby, cloakroom, spacious entrance hall, study, lounge with garden room leading off, dining room with connecting doors to the lounge, kitchen, utility room, three bedrooms, en-suite bathroom and family bathroom.

Benefits of the property include a distant sea view from the main bedroom, gas fired central heating via radiators, a good size garage, potential off street parking for numerous vehicles to the front and beautifully established landscaped gardens to the rear with a south westerly aspect, designed carefully with consideration given to the style of the cottage.

The property is situated less than 100 yards from the promenade, sea and Cobbolds Point, within easy reach of the highly regarded Fludyers boutique hotel/restaurant and is less than half a mile from Felixstowe's main town centre shopping thoroughfare with a variety of local and national high street stores available.
