Description

Stepping inside, you're immediately welcomed by a layout that offers an impressive degree of flexibility, making the home well suited to a variety of lifestyles. The ground floor features two inviting reception rooms, with the front reception centred around an attractive feature fireplace, while the second enjoys direct access to the secluded Easterly facing rear garden, creating an effortless connection between indoor and outdoor living. A contemporary kitchen with integrated appliances, a stylish modern shower room and useful understairs storage complete the ground floor accommodation. Upstairs, the property offers three generously proportioned bedrooms, all providing comfortable and versatile living space. Externally, the home continues to impress with a private driveway providing off street parking, convenient side access and a well screened Easterly facing rear garden, offering an ideal setting to relax or entertain.

Epsom offers an appealing balance of countryside tranquillity and everyday convenience, with leafy streets surrounding a vibrant town centre. The Ashley Centre, twice-weekly traditional market, independent cafés and restaurants provide plenty of choice for shopping, dining and socialising. For leisure, residents can enjoy Horton Country Park, Epsom Common and the iconic Epsom Downs Racecourse, offering beautiful surroundings for walking, cycling and outdoor activities. The town is well served by a range of educational options, including highly regarded state schools such as Rosebery Girls School and Glyn Boys School, alongside strong primary schools. Independent options include Epsom College, Freemans and Downsend, while UCA and Laines Theatre Arts add to the town's creative character. Transport links are excellent, with frequent direct services from Epsom station to London Victoria and Waterloo, with journey times of approximately 35–45 minutes. The M25 and A3 are easily accessible by road, while Heathrow and Gatwick airports are both around a 35-minute drive away.
