Ideally located for the village centre, this three bedroom family home sits behind a lawned front garden, with layby parking in front. The dual aspect, open plan living / dining room feels bright and airy and there's a useful lean to / utility room leading off the kitchen. Upstairs, two of the bedrooms are doubles and all three have built in cupboards. The separate loo sits alongside the family bathroom and there's scope for the next owner to add value and their own stamp of personality through a little remodelling.

The low maintenance rear garden is a lovely place to relax with family and friends, with steps down to a parking area and single garage, accessed from Rosehill / Caffyns Rise.

The High Street is just down the road from the property, offering an excellent selection of shops, bars, cafes, takeaways and restaurants. There are Sainsburys and Lidl supermarkets in the village, plus a Tesco Express, doctors, dentists and a library. Commuters will appreciate that direct routes to London and Gatwick are available from the mainline station, a little over half a mile away. Billingshurst Primary Academy and The Weald Secondary School and Sixth Form are a ten minute stroll.
