53 Church Road, Gurnard

£345,000

Positioned in the heart of the lovely village of Gurnard, this much loved family home has been in the same ownership for over 60 years and is offered Chain Free. Although some general modernisation would be beneficial, the home offers well appointed and spacious rooms, with flexibility of use. There is a separate lounge at the front of the home, whilst the family dining/sitting room is set to the back, linking in to the kitchen and in turn with the garden. There is a handy cloakroom to complete this level.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and a stylish shower room. The home has a sunny and well tended rear garden with a large workshop to the end and parking for two cars at the front.

All-in-all, this is an appealing family home, in a great location with good access to schools and beaches. Freehold. Council Tax Band - C. EPC E-48
