CONVENIENT FOR EVERYWHERE!

There's no chain to slow down your purchase of this end townhouse which is in a really popular location within the location only a short walk away from Tesco, the town centre, local schools and conveniently close for access to the A50.

The house has been let until recently and will benefit from some general freshening up but maintains really well-proportioned accommodation with two decent-sized bedrooms, a ground floor bathroom and in addition to the lounge there's also a kitchen with dining area and door leading into the back garden.

Heating is from a combi boiler, the house has UPVC double glazing and there's on street parking available in Grosvenor Street.
