Offers Over £750,000

An exceptional and rare opportunity to acquire a family home, privately nestled within approximately 18.7 acres of enchanting mature woodland. Forming part of the protected and highly coveted Skellingthorpe Old Wood, this remarkable setting is celebrated for its natural beauty, seclusion, and thriving wildlife. The grounds are a true haven for nature lovers, featuring a picturesque private lake, areas of ancient oak and graceful birch, and sweeping lawns that blend seamlessly into the surrounding woodland. A rich variety of birdlife, deer, and other woodland species can often be seen roaming freely, creating an ever changing backdrop of natural serenity throughout the seasons. A collection of substantial outbuildings adds remarkable versatility, including multiple garages, workshops, and a carport with office accommodation above - perfect for those seeking a home business base, creative studio, or potential annexe conversion (subject to consents). Constructed in 1966 and cherished by one family since new, the home itself offers well proportioned accommodation with enormous scope to reimagine, modernise, or extend, creating a truly bespoke woodland residence that harmonises with its rare and captivating surroundings. Viewing of this charming property is highly recommended to appreciate all that is on offer.
