Force Mill Farm

Satterthwaite, Ulverston

Force Mill Farm is a well presented, highly versatile six bedroom, traditional detached Lakeland property. Originally built circa 1691 as a farmhouse and subsequently extended over the years, retaining a wealth of original character features whilst more recent additions have created a modern and flexible home. The property has been refurbished and reconfigured by the current owners including a new roof in 2022 with extensive solar panelling. There is an additional parcel of land with river frontage only 50 yards away.

The main portion of the house offers spacious living accommodation with three/four reception rooms and a lovely farmhouse kitchen that all enjoy exposed beams and pretty cottage style double glazed windows. Offering six double bedrooms with four having ensuite.

A quirky property with multiple levels and each with unique and captivating views. The rear of the property has a former cottage which has been amalgamated into the main accommodation with a secondary staircase. This element may be suitable for multiple generations purchasing a property as this could easily be ideal annexe accommodation. The property will suit a variety of buyers, whether as a main residence for family or retirement, or a good holiday letting property which could generate circa £00,000 pa.

The property enjoys an attractive and easily maintained garden, mainly situated to the front with generous parking and south facing sunny aspect.

Set in an idyllic picturesque location between Coniston Water and Windermere, on the borders of Grizedale Forest not far from Hawkshead. The area is popular with visitors, offering many leisure activities including hill, country, riverside and forest walks, sculpture trails, on/off road cycle routes, boating with Go Ape on the doorstep.
