4 Hay Way Wragby

This is a genuinely delightful two bedroom mid terrace cottage, located in what is a very attractive walk of homes, located in the heart of the small but bustling town of Wragby. A formal viewing is genuinely highly recommended.

The Hay Way is a pedestrian only walk running off the adjoining Lincoln Road to the south. As a consequence, the cottage is just a hundred yards away from the Co-op supermarket and the market place with its cafe/tea shops, public houses, fish and chip shop and yet more.

There is a well respected doctor's surgery, a primary school and leisure facilities.

Bedroom 2 with an easterly view down over the rear garden; wood style laminate flooring and electric panel heater.

OUTSIDE

The Hay Way pedestrian walkway runs through down the western frontage of these attractive cottage style homes, to the private car parking area for the terrace, where there is an individual numbered parking space for the property as well as guest car parking spaces. Enter from Lincoln Road.

There is a small area of landscaped grounds maintained through a resident's management company with a current monthly charge of £5 per month. There is an additional pedestrian footpath running down the rear of the terrace providing access to the rear garden of the cottages.

To the front of the cottage, there is a very attractive small area of garden with a good range of attractive shrubs and flowering plants inset. There is a small surprisingly private rear garden onto which the rear entrance door from the dining room opens. This very appealing sheltered garden has been laid with a good size gravel seating area with accompanying flowerbeds/borders containing ornamental grasses, roses, passion flowers and more, together with an attractive boulder water feature.

There are exterior light fittings, power point and cold water tap.
