Dalgarno Gardens

North Kensington

A wonderfully characterful Victorian family house with uninterrupted views across Little Wormwood Scrubs, generous accommodation and a south-facing garden.

Overlooking the beautiful green open spaces of Little Wormwood Scrubs, this handsome Victorian house enjoys a wonderful sense of openness and an outlook rarely found in London.

Full of charm and original character, the house has been sympathetically modernised over the years, creating a welcoming family home with beautifully proportioned rooms and a wonderfully relaxed atmosphere.

The double reception room extends to over 30 feet, with high ceilings, original features and a delightful bay window looking directly across the park. To the rear, a generous kitchen and dining room opens onto a secluded, south-facing courtyard garden, providing a lovely space for everyday family life and entertaining.

The upper floors offer six bedrooms, including particularly impressive front bedrooms enjoying leafy views over the park, together with two bathrooms. The accommodation is both generous and flexible, with plenty of scope to adapt the layout to suit a family's changing needs.

A rare opportunity to acquire a substantial Victorian family home where the character of the house is complemented by the exceptional open outlook across the park.
