The Property

This impressive first-floor apartment forms part of an elegant Victorian building and enjoys a slightly elevated position. Full of charm and character, the property retains a wealth of original period features, including intricate decorative carvings and a beautiful cast iron fireplace. The stunning main reception room is bathed in natural light thanks to a striking large bay window and offers wonderfully generous proportions, creating a superb focal point for the home. With ample space for both relaxing and dining, it is perfectly suited to cosy evenings in or entertaining family and friends.

The separate kitchen is well appointed with an excellent range of maple-coloured wall and base units, complemented by black work surfaces. It also features an electric hob and oven, fitted extractor fan, and benefits from two tall windows that allow plenty of natural light to flood the space.

Quietly positioned to the rear of the property, the principal bedroom enjoys a peaceful setting and an abundance of natural light from its large bay window. The second bedroom features a charming cast iron fireplace and enjoys a pleasant outlook.

Completing the accommodation is a family bathroom fitted with a classic white three-piece suite, comprising a WC, pedestal basin, and a bath with shower over.

Location - Redland

Redland is a highly sought after residential area located in North West Bristol, known for its excellent schools, green spaces, and proximity to both Whiteladies Road & Gloucester Road it's a popular location for families and professionals.
