SUMMARY

30 Bowmont Street is an attractive and well-presented semi-detached townhouse, ideally positioned just a stone's throw from the town centre and its excellent range of local shops, cafés and amenities. The property offers bright, spacious accommodation arranged over several floors, with a flexible layout and tasteful, neutral décor throughout, creating a welcoming home that is ready to move into and enjoy.

The accommodation includes a modern, fully fitted kitchen, while the first floor offers three generously proportioned double bedrooms and a bathroom. Two additional storage rooms on the second floor provide useful extra space. Externally, the property benefits from an enclosed courtyard garden, offering a pleasant outdoor area, together with the added convenience of a dedicated residents' parking space.

Combining an appealing interior with a convenient central location, 30 Bowmont Street would make an ideal main residence, a charming second home or an attractive investment opportunity. With its current use as a holiday let, the property may also appeal to buyers looking to continue operating it as a short-term rental, subject to their own requirements.

LOCATION

Kelso is a vibrant and historic Borders town proudly positioned at the confluence of the Rivers Tweed and Teviot. Long regarded as one of the most attractive and unspoiled towns in the region, Kelso has become an increasingly popular choice for homebuyers, offering a blend of heritage, lifestyle, and modern convenience. • Amenities: The town centres around its distinctive Flemish-style cobbled square, home to artisan shops, independent retailers, cafés, and services. Kelso benefits from excellent leisure and beauty facilities, supermarkets, and a broad range of mainstream amenities. The town's rich history is reflected in landmarks such as Floors Castle and the remains of its notable Augustan Abbey, contributing to a thriving visitor and holiday trade. • Schooling: Kelso is exceptionally well served for education, with a modern primary school and a state-of-the-art secondary school offering high-quality facilities for local families. • Population: As one of the Borders' most sought-after towns, Kelso has a welcoming and active community of around 7000, supported by a wide variety of clubs, events, and cultural and sporting activities. • Transport Connections: The town enjoys excellent road links to neighbouring Border towns and is commutable to Edinburgh. Rail connections are easily accessed via Berwick-upon-Tweed on the East Coast Main Line. The surrounding countryside provides endless walking routes, trails, and outdoor pursuits, including fishing on the River Tweed, making Kelso a clear favourite for those seeking both lifestyle and connectivity.
