THE PROPERTY

This well presented and spacious bungalow, has adaptable and versatile accommodation and is located in this quiet, no through lane on the picturesque semi rural fringes of the popular village of Grayshott. The bungalow is set back from the lane with delightful and well cared for wrap around gardens including lawns, paved terraces, quiet corners and a detached garage and adjoining workshop. With a lovely view over the front garden is the L shaped open plan Living/family room/conservatory with the living area having a fireplace and wood burner. The central hallway then gives direct access to all of the other principle rooms which include the well fitted kitchen, main bedroom with an en suite shower room, dining room/bedroom four, bedrooms two and three, the family bath/shower room and utility room. There is additional access to the side and rear garden areas off the kitchen and utility room making, with ramped wheelchair access into the kitchen.

THE GROUNDS

With a plot of a quarter of an acre, the property has wonderful and well cared for gardens to the front, side and back along with a generous driveway, leading to the side carport and garage/workshop to the rear. The gardens are level and feature well maintained lawns, a pretty side terrace with feature apple tree and bbq area. established hedges give plenty of screening privacy all round.

SITUATION
