Full Description

This substantial detached family home offers flexible and generous accommodation across two floors, ideal for larger families or those seeking versatile living space. The property features multiple reception rooms, an open plan living and dining area, a conservatory, four bedrooms including an en-suite, and well balanced indoor and outdoor spaces, all set within a popular residential location.

THE FORE

The property is approached via a wide driveway providing ample off road parking and access to the main entrance. The frontage is attractively presented with established greenery, creating a welcoming and private approach to the home.

GROUND FLOOR

The ground floor offers a highly adaptable layout beginning with a spacious open plan living and dining room, ideal for everyday family life and entertaining. A separate sitting room to the front provides a more intimate reception space. The kitchen sits to the rear and opens into a bright conservatory that overlooks the garden, creating an excellent additional living or dining area. Further accommodation includes a useful utility room, a ground floor shower room, and a bedroom or study with adjoining wardrobe area, making this level suitable for multi generational living or home working.
