Fishermans Cottage is located in the highly sought after village of Naburn just south of the city of York. This is a truly unique and rare opportunity to acquire a fabulous and versatile four bedroom property dating back to the 1700's.

The pretty double fronted cottage with it's abundance of character and extensive accommodation has been a superb family home for many years and is sure to attract strong interest. The prime location offers superb accessibility into York City Centre and the A64 outer ring road including Fulford school catchment area and Naburn primary school.

The extensive property comprises; Entrance hall leading into an inner hall, downstairs wc, utility room, living kitchen, large lounge with two sets of patio doors onto garden, dining room/snug and separate kitchenette. To the first floor are four double bedrooms, dressing room/office, family bathroom and shower room. The property benefits from oil fired central heating.

Externally the pretty enclosed gardens are laid largely to lawn with well planted borders and offering a good sense of privacy with stunning views across the river Ouse making it the perfect place for countryside walks and spotting wildlife. The house also includes a good sized detached garage and driveway providing ample off street parking.

Must be viewed to appreciate what this fabulous home has to offer.
