The Nitty Gritty (Alice in Wonderland edition)

Down the rabbit hole of property dealings, we've wandered far and wide and made the acquaintance of some most curious and capable professionals. Should we point you toward one of them, you may trust it is done in the sincerest spirit—that your journey shall be as smooth as the Queen's croquet lawn (on a good day, of course). Now and then, a select few of these characters—though certainly not the majority—may offer us a small token of appreciation, no greater than £200, for the introduction. But pray, feel no obligation to follow any path we suggest; you are quite free to choose your own adventure.

Should you, in the most delightful turn of events, have your offer accepted on one of our enchanting properties and decide to proceed, there is a modest administration fee of £36 (including VAT) per person. This is required to complete the necessary Anti-Money Laundering identity checks—important business, even in Wonderland—and, like many curious things, it is non-refundable.
